

Things ...

People ...

Animals ...

Places ...

conditions ...

WHAT ARE NOUNS?

Words that describe: things, animals and people.

They represent the larger number of the words that have to be learned.

You will never learn all the nouns in English nor in your native tongue; that is ok it is not necessary to know all of them anyway, the command of the language cannot be determined by the number of nouns you know, besides if you read a noun you can in seconds look it up in a translator and there you go.....